

HALL OF FAME BOXER WINS BY KO

Signing hall of fame boxer and 4x World Champion 'Hotstuff' Hollie Dunaway was a big deal for LFC and fans were excited to see her debut. Dunaway was originally slated to fight Bella Ink but a training injury forced a last minute change and Bella Rockafella took her place. On paper this looked like an easy win for Dunaway as Rockafella entered the fight 0-2 but boxers often struggle in LFC due to the no standing strikes to the face rule. But Dunaway found a creative way around the rule when she knocked out Rockafella from her knees! See the fight exclusively at www.LFCfights.com

MADISYN & BATHORY RENEW HOSTILITIES

Any other night a re-match between Bella 'Rebel Princess' Madisyn and Sheena 'The Hungarian Hurricane' Bathory would have had FOTN written all over it. But the LFC37 card was stacked from top to bottom so this highly anticipated re-match may not have gotten all the hype it deserved but once the bell rang the two definitely didn't disappoint! At one point Madisyn invited Bathory to slap her, an obvious ploy to get the Power Slap League superstar disqualified. Bathory seemed to take the bait and removed one of her gloves and anyone who saw the now viral video of Bathory's PSL debut was concerned that Madisyn had lost her damn mind. But what happened next was epic. See for yourself at www.LFCfights.com

BELLATOR BEAUTY MAKES LFC DEBUT

Kyra 'Mogwai' Batara was another highly anticipated fighter making her debut at LFC37: Back to the Mansion. Last fighting at Bellator 276, Batara is a legit MMA fighter who can throw down with the best of them. Scheduled to take on one of the LFC's top contenders in Lauren Fogle unfortunately Fogle was forced to withdraw for personal reasons and Teri 'Feisty Fists' London took her place on just 3 days notice (she was expecting to ref LFC37, not fight!) If Batara was expecting an easy win, London had other plans and it was a closer fight than many pundits had anticipated. See the action at www.LFCfights.com

SALINA VS KATIE FORBES PT. 2

It is a testament to the strength of the LFC37 card that not even a hall of fame boxer or Bellator superstar could make their way into the main event. That honor went to wrestling royalty Salina de la Renta and Katie 'The Bombshell' Forbes in a re-match of their epic LFC31 battle which saw Salina take the vacant Booty Camp Champ title and Forbes throw a tantrum that would put any 2 year old in Walmart to shame. Who would have the upper hand this time? Check out LFC37 at www.LFCfights.com to find out. And bonus points if you spot the WWE legend in the photo!
