SARAH ‘THE REBEL’ WOLFE

Sarah ‘The Rebel’ Wolfe was one of the first fighters selected to represent Team USA at LFC43: Sindependence Day 2 in London, England. But the Vegas native could have made a case to fight for Team UK as her mother was born in London. Perhaps that is why she had an easier time than her American teammates when Coach Kane surprised them with a meal consisting of British delicacies like blood pudding and jellied eel! Even though the LFC overall title wasn't on the line at LFC43 (Ink would defend it two nights later at LFC44 in Wales) there was never any doubt the LFC champion would be part of Team USA. The Nashville boxer won over the hostile London audience with her exciting entrance and take no prisoners style. Photo courtesy Bella Ink.

GOTH 'THE DEMON' DELILAH

Goth 'The Demon' Delilah got things off to a great start for Team UK with a victory over Gypsy Mac in the opening bout of LFC43. Selected for her relentless ground game and exceptional strength, the London native said it was an honor to represent her country, especially in front of a home town crowd. The ex-power-lifter was especially excited when she learned one of the judges would be Eddie Hall, former strongest man in the world!

Her right hand is propped up near her face, and her left hand is resting on the couch. A tattoo is visible on her left forearm. In the background, a person's legs in black stockings and high heels are visible. The text 'JOLENE' is in the top right corner in a large, red, stylized font with a white outline.

Leading Team USA into battle in London was none other than LFC European Champion Jolene 'The Valkyrie' Hexx. Because the title can only be defended on European soil, it was the first opportunity for Hexx to defend the title she won way back at LFC24 in Bratislava, Slovakia in 2016. It's been a great year for Hexx who is shown here posing for Playboy Magazine. Photo courtesy Miles Long©.

MEL FIRE

Being selected to represent Team UK is an honor for any fighter. Being given a title fight in your LFC debut vs one of the most successful fighters in LFC history is an honor and a formidable challenge all at once. Mel Fire was up for the task and didn't hesitate when Coach David Campbell told her she'd be the one trying to strip Jolene Hexx of the European title. Although Fire was born and raised in Brazil, she has been living – and fighting – in the UK for more than 5 years. Photo courtesy Ethan Regis.

AMBER PHOENIX

There are no easy matches when it's best on best but Amber Phoenix drew an especially tough opponent in LFC champ Bella Ink. The Northampton grappler knew she'd not only have to have the fight of her life but also match Ink's famous entrances. Donning a pair of fiery wings, Phoenix rose from the ashes like her mythological namesake. She may have won the entrance battle, but the fight was another story...

BELLA ‘GODDESS OF CHAOS’ MADISYN

Booty Camp champ Bella ‘Goddess of Chaos’ Madisyn was an obvious choice for Team USA. Even though her title would not be on the line, Madisyn has a history of stepping up in big fights and none are bigger than representing your country. Taking on a familiar foe, Madisyn definitely lived up to her motto: if you aren’t cheating, you aren’t trying. But did she go too far this time? Photo courtesy Miles Long©.

RYLEE ‘WILD CARD’ JADE

One of the most surprising – and controversial – signings by Team UK was Rylee ‘Wild Card’ Jade. LFC43 was the first time she had ever set foot on UK soil. This raised some eyebrows and had Team USA coach Joel Kane reaching for a history book. Although Jade now lives in Vancouver, Canada she was born in Hong Kong when it was still a UK territory and has a British passport which made her eligible to fight for the UK. ## ‘DINO-MYTE’ DANI MO

‘Dino-Myte’ Dani Mo is the only Team USA member who had never fought in the LFC prior to LFC43. But the highly touted wrestler is no stranger to the fight game, coming in with a 18-7 record. Coach Kane had been trying to add the Pittsburgh, PA native to his Pink Team for nearly a year without success. But when offered an opportunity to fight for her country, Mo couldn’t say no and the rest is history. Photo courtesy Emma Meek.

RAY LYN

Ray Lyn is the second fighter to return to LFC after an 8 year or longer absence. She last fought at LFC23: Guilty Pleasures in 2017 as Raya Ryans. During her time away she became a popular pro-wrestler but like fellow Pennsylvanian Dani Mo, Lyn just couldn't turn down the opportunity to fight for Team USA. The two would fight each other at LFC44 in Cardiff, Wales just two nights later in what was billed as the Steel City Showdown.

EPIPHANY JONES

A popular fighter in the London underground, Epiphany Jones was an obvious choice for Team UK. Famous for her strong legs, seven of Jones eight wins (versus only 2 losses) have come by scissor submission. She has been described as an ‘unstoppable force who dominates her opponents on the ground.’ Photo courtesy Epiphany Jones.

NADIA SAPPHIRE

The first fighter selected for Team UK was veteran Nadia Sapphire whose 31 previous fights ranked her second on either team (only Team USA's Jolene Hexx has more). The Cardiff, Wales native is a legend in the UK so no one was surprised when she was appointed team captain. Cocky and confident, Sapphire is not above giving her opponent a humiliating stink face before finishing them with strong technical skills. Photo courtesy Nadia Sapphire.
